

CASA MODERNISTA- 2010

CASA ALPHAVILLE

Gustavo Penna
House in Nova Lima
Belo Horizonte, MG 2006

Right: Though set in a rural area, this house continues the motif seen in urban houses of turning a blank wall to the public side, and opening the rear of the house to the natural view. Below and bottom: Entry bridge leads to the two-story glass wall framing the entry and staircase.

CASA MODERNISTA

CASA MODERNISTA- 2010

CASA ALPHAVILLE

Above and left: Interlocking white planes punctuated by columns are a form of Neo-Corbusianism, an internationally popular revival style since the 1970s.

Opposite, bottom left: Mezzanine at top of stairs is connected to the bedroom.

Opposite, top and bottom right: Master bedroom and master bathroom.

